II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

☒ Federal question

☐ Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

A. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is a Federal Question

List the specific federal statutes, federal treaties, and/or provisions of the United States Constitution that are at issue in this case.

1983 section 42

B. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is Diversity of Citizenship

1. The Plaintiff(s)

a. If the plaintiff is an individual

The plaintiff, (name) _____,
is a citizen of the State of (name) _____.

b. If the plaintiff is a corporation

The plaintiff, (name) _____,
is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) _____,
and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) _____.

(If more than one plaintiff is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional plaintiff.)

2. The Defendant(s)

a. If the defendant is an individual

The defendant, (name) _____, is a citizen of the State of (name) _____. Or is a citizen of (foreign nation) _____.

b. If the defendant is a corporation

The defendant, (name) _____, is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) _____, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) _____.
Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) _____, and has its principal place of business in (name) _____.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

Plaintiff is suing for 20 million dollars

Any all compensatory damages and all damages legally allowed by plaintiff, including punitive damages.

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

Plaintiff is disabled, has a traumatic brain injury from tragic Valentine's Day accident in 2018, suffers from several life changing injuries due to the accident. The defendants intentionally committed fraud in one the most egregious and cold ways ever. While plaintiff was unable to speak these officers decided to create a fake report about the plaintiff. The officer's created fake injuries, fake drs, fake destination. The officer never spoke to plaintiff at the scene of the accident, several hours later the officer showed up at the hospital, and still plaintiff could not speak, the officer was clearly irritated with plaintiff disabilities and left in frustration. The plaintiff has suffered severely due to this fake report, plaintiff is not able to sue the irresponsible driver who has altered his life forever. The defendant did this intentionally and willfully simply because of plaintiff disabilities and his race he believes, plaintiff is black, the officers are white. The defendant's are responsible for their callous acts as well plaintiff inability to sue the driver, who has used the fake report to get out of paying for his actions. The defendant's took advantage of disabled person who could not defend himself, the officer knew plaintiff injuries were severe, when they arrived at the hospital, plaintiff was in a half body cast, and couldn't speak, there is no excuse for the officer actions here, qualified immunity can not protect the officers and plaintiff is seeking justice. Plaintiff is now just bringing his lawsuit due to his disabilities making that impossible, until the court created a temporary program through their website that allows plaintiff to use his assistive devices to file his case. This program was just brought to the plaintiff attention by court pro se administrationer. Plaintiff is now seeking justice he is due, the defendant's have no defense and their city officials are refusing to explain the fake report, other than saying "if they explained why the officers did what they did, it would create a loss of confidence in the community". Plaintiff has lost a lot more than the public confidence, plaintiff is visually impaired, speech empatment, and several other physical and cognitive injuries due to this accident. The defendant are responsible for their deliberate actions.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages. Plaintiff is suing for fraud, discrimination, intentional emotional distress, and loss of enjoyment of his life. Plaintiff til this day suffers from the defendant's actions cause the insurance has refused to pay for necessary treatment plaintiff needs, especially for traumatic brain injury. Plaintiff is seeking any all relief he is entitled to as well punitive damages. Insurance company states very clearly and often, this fake report is the reason for the denial of payments and benefits.
